THIS SECTION TO BE COMPLETED BY INFORMATION PROVIDER

DEFINITION OF DISABLED

Under federal law, an individual is disabled if he/she has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; has a record of such impairment; or is regarded as having such impairment. The term physical or mental impairment includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech, and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, drug addiction, and alcoholism. This definition does not include any individual who is a drug addict and who is currently using illegal drugs or an alcoholic who poses a direct threat to property or safety because of alcohol use [24 CFR Part 8.3].

INFORMATION REQUESTED

1. Is the above referenced household member disabled as defined above? Yes No
2. In your professional opinion, does the household member need the services of a live-in aid in order to have the same opportunity that a non-disabled individual has to use and enjoy their residence? Yes No

I certify that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
